

BENET ACADEMY'S
HUSTLE & HEART
BASKETBALL CLINIC

TO BENEFIT THE DANNY DID FOUNDATION

SUNDAY. SEPTEMBER 25. 2011

Benet Academy High School, 2200 Maple Avenue, Lisle, IL

SESSION I: 3pm - 5pm | Kindergarten - 4th Grade

SESSION II: 5pm - 7pm | 5th Grade - 8th Grade

COST: $30 per participant. Thanks to the generosity of the coaches and counselors involved, all proceeds go to the Danny Did Foundation. A t-shirt is included for each camper.

REGISTRATION: Registration for this event is online only at www.events.org/basketball.

DETAILS: Danny Stanton did hustle and Danny Did have heart. This one-day basketball clinic for boys and girls will be hosted by Benet Academy coach and Stanton family friend Gene Heidkamp.

Varsity players from Benet will serve as volunteer counselors for the camp. K-4th grade participants will learn the basics of dribbling, passing and shooting and enjoy fun basketball contests. 5th-8th campers will learn offensive skills, including shooting, ball handling, and tips on becoming the best player you can be.

PLEASE NOTE: Each session will be limited to 150 participants. Once maximum capacity is reached, registration will be closed. Requested T-shirt sizes can only be guaranteed for those who register by Sept. 8th.

The Danny Did Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation organized in the state of Illinois and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. To find out how you can assist our mission to prevent deaths caused by seizures, please visit this website: www.dannydid.org.

