

SPORTS

SPORTS COVER STORY

Plodzen leads Loyola in win over Notre Dame

War on the Shore benefits Danny Did Foundation

TODD MARVER, Staff Writer

rebounding and assists and today it was a little bit of scoring, so you just try to do what you can.

"When we met with the team today before the game, I talked about Will and Eddie (Trapp) and how they've excelled expectations in their senior years to this point."

Loyola Academy senior Tom Lavarino said, "So it didn't surprise me that Will Plodzen netted 12 points the following weekend.

Plodzen netted 12 points in a 54-45 win over Notre Dame, who has been a fixture in area top 25 rankings this season, at the sixth annual War on the Shore at Loyola Academy on Saturday, Jan. 30. Plodzen knocked down three三分ers during a 16-2 loss to St. Ignace's. Plodzen recorded nine rebounds and five assists.

Evans led the Ramblers to a 12-12 tie into a 28-14 Ramblers advantage. He then played more limited minutes in the second half due to pre-existing injuries.

"I think just building on momentum and hitting shot after shot keeps you going and keeps you wanting to shoot more," Plodzen said. "Just resting up and coming back, you're eager to play and you just want to contribute all you can to your team. Last night it was with rebounding and assists and today it was a little bit of scoring, so you just try to do what you can.

"When we met with the team today before the game, I talked about Will and Eddie (Trapp) and how they've excelled expectations in their senior years to this point."

Loyola Academy senior Tom Lavarino said, "So it didn't surprise me that Will Plodzen netted 12 points the following weekend.

Plodzen netted 12 points in a 54-45 win over Notre Dame, who has been a fixture in area top 25 rankings this season, at the sixth annual War on the Shore at Loyola Academy on Saturday, Jan. 30. Plodzen knocked down three三分ers during a 16-2 loss to St. Ignace's. Plodzen recorded nine rebounds and five assists.

Evans led the Ramblers to a 12-12 tie into a 28-14 Ramblers advantage. He then played more limited minutes in the second half due to pre-existing injuries.

"I think just building on momentum and hitting shot after shot keeps you going and keeps you wanting to shoot more," Plodzen said. "Just resting up and coming back, you're eager to play and you just want to contribute all you can to your team. Last night it was with rebounding and assists and today it was a little bit of scoring, so you just try to do what you can.

"When we met with the team today before the game, I talked about Will and Eddie (Trapp) and how they've excelled expectations in their senior years to this point."

Loyola Academy's Ramer Evans makes a leaping pass to avoid a Notre Dame double team on Saturday, Jan. 30, in Winnetka. TRACY ALLEN/22ND CENTURY MEDIA

it's an important thing for us to grow our guys in that respect." "Inajables are a big focus in the offseason and an even bigger focus in-season," Plodzen said. "We have a board for Inajables Player of the Week, so we strive to get that every week.

Mike and Marissa Stanton to prevent deaths caused by seizures. It was founded by the foundation's mission is to donate to the Danny Did Foundation. Marissa, $2,090 of gate proceeds was donated to the foundation's mission is to prevent deaths caused by seizures. It was founded by Mike and Marissa Stanton after the sudden unexplained death in epilepsy of their four-year-old son, Danny. Lavarino was proud of how his squad bounced back from a tough loss to St. Ignace's. Plodzen netted 12 points in a 54-45 win over Notre Dame, who has been a fixture in area top 25 rankings this season, at the sixth annual War on the Shore at Loyola Academy on Saturday, Jan. 30. Plodzen knocked down three三分ers during a 16-2 loss to St. Ignace's. Plodzen recorded nine rebounds and five assists.

Evans noted that freshman Andre White Jr.'s Twitter post served as motivation to beat Notre Dame after a close loss the day prior. "Bouncing back is always hard after a loss," Evans said. "Andre White missed the game-winning shot and was kind of down about it. We rallied around him though. He posted something on Twitter and it said that even though he can't get the shot back, let's come back today and get a win. That's what motivated us to go out and get a win."

Evans noted that freshman Andre White Jr.'s Twitter post served as motivation to beat Notre Dame after a close loss the day prior. "Bouncing back is always hard after a loss," Evans said. "Andre White missed the game-winning shot and was kind of down about it. We rallied around him though. He posted something on Twitter and it said that even though he can't get the shot back, let's come back today and get a win. That's what motivated us to go out and get a win."

Evans noted that freshman Andre White Jr.'s Twitter post served as motivation to beat Notre Dame after a close loss the day prior. "Bouncing back is always hard after a loss," Evans said. "Andre White missed the game-winning shot and was kind of down about it. We rallied around him though. He posted something on Twitter and it said that even though he can't get the shot back, let's come back today and get a win. That's what motivated us to go out and get a win."